Kristen, Droppin' Some Oily Wisdom

I can't believe it's already JULY. Wow, where does the time go? BUT, I'm especially excited about this month's promo because I've been dying to try the YL lip balms. And, I was not disappointed. I LOVE the free grapefruit lip balm. It's creamy, smells amazing, and is long-lasting. I love knowing that I'm not putting any gunk into my system with this product, too. I hope you all get the free promo items this month and enjoy them as much as I have been.

To change subjects, Elizabeth and I have been working really hard to win the Dream 1000 oils. Imagine, winning all these amazing oils just for sharing the love and light of Young Living with others!

We found out that the mystery oil is something called Fragonia. I'm soooo hoping I win this new oil. Apparently, it has a soft scent reminiscent of a floral Tea Tree and has cleansing, soothing properties. I'm crossing my fingers....

We have just a few weeks left of this four-month contest, folks. I hope each and every one of you help lots of people shift toward better wellness and cleaner living and win the oils! The good we do for others returns to us. Young Living makes sure of it! Remember that, my friends.

Liz, Droppin' Info on New Products!

Hi, Oily friends!

It's Young Living Convention week. I, for one, am super sad that I couldn't go this year. I hear Convention is an amazing thing to experience and wanted to go, but you know how life can be at times. Imagine 40,000 oilers descending on Salt Lake City for all things Young Living: educational modules, speakers, leadership presentations, food, product trials, and NEW PRODUCT ANNOUNCEMENTS! OMG, I would have LOVED to have gone. But, I'll have to settle for the photos and stories on Facebook. I'm definitely going next year. It's gonna happen. :)

Following's a list of all the new, permanent products launched at the 2019 International Grand Convention! and they are amazing. From body-lovin' supplements to beauty-enhancing makeup tools, this year's convention has more new products than Peppermint has benefits. Young Living also announced CBD products from our wholly owned partner, Nature's Ultra—and YES! U.S. members can earn PV on select Nature's Ultra products.

These products will be available for purchase by U.S. members (not attending the convention) on Monday, July 22, at 10 a.m., MT. There are no purchase limits on these products; they are not available for Essential Rewards order or point redemption.
